

DENNIS D FERRANDIZ LEAD LANDSCAPE ARCHITECT

Personal, Educational and Language Details:

Filipino Landscape Architect, graduated BSc Civil Engineering in 1987 from Colegio De La Purisima Concepcion, Philippines with more than 30 years continuous professional experience and 25 years as a landscape architect and over 14 years in the Middle East. Mother tongue is Filipino and fluent in written and spoken English.

Key Skills:

Over 25 years' experience in the design, development and detailing of landscaping works including open spaces both natural and built environment. Experience in the preparation and presentation of detailed plans and working drawings and specifications for the project using computer-aided (CAD) packages, site visits and responding to site queries, dealing with enquiries and negotiating amendments to the final design. Experience in construction supervision of landscaping both hard and soft landscape works.

Experience:

2011-present: Fahd Alireza Engineering Consultants, Saudi Arabia – Lead Landscape Architect:

Lead Landscape Architect in charge for all landscaping design work in Yanbu office. Responsible for the design, management and coordination of landscape projects, landscape activity schedules, active participation in the project design tasks, presentation of proposals to Client for approval and coordinates with other disciplines for details related to architectural, structural, civil utilities and electrical to avoid conflict/clashes with the landscape design. Resolves field-initiated questions on landscape architecture and related engineering, through visiting site and exchange information, coordinates activities among the design group including urban planning, irrigation, mechanical and electrical support services and exchange of information at all levels on landscaping assignments and request specialized professional services when necessary.

Projects undertaken include the landscaping design for Yanbu University College, Male Campus; landscaping and irrigation system design for Home Ownership Programs 6 and 7 in Haii Al Meshaireef, Yanbu Al Sinaiyah; Yanbu Training Institute Housing expansion; Residential Buildings in Haii Al-Nawa; Medical Warehouse; Yanbu Training Institute Expansion; and Family Housing in Al-Nakheel-2.

2010-2011: SA Kentz, Saudi Arabia, – Senior Landscape Architect:

Design and coordination of all landscape architectural and engineering activities for the project. Developed design for approval and preparation of project proposals.

2005-2010: Italian Gardens Landscape Design & Development, Dubai, UAE – Landscape Architect:

Responsible for the preparation of reports regarding, landscape architecture and engineering, visit the jobsite as required for exchange of information, coordinates activities among the various design group on the projects and request for specialized professional services when necessary. Coordinate meeting in every project task and exchange information with all department levels or disciplines for proper communication and working relationship.

2001-2005: Nature Works Landscaping Services, Philippines – Principal Landscape Architect:

Monitor and coordinate all landscaping and architectural design activities and works and coordinate with allied professionals to construct the project in the best possible way and with highly satisfactory results for the owner.

1993-2001: Royal Concourse Gourmet, Philippines – Landscape Architect:

Monitoring and coordinating all the various landscape and architectural activities and trades, together with detailed coordination with other professionals and trades during construction of the project.