

FAHD ABDULLAH ALIREZA OWNER AND CHAIRMAN

Personal, Educational and Language Details:

Kuwaiti Civil Engineer, graduated BSc in Civil Engineering in 1980 from Tufts University, Massachusetts, USA, specialising in Strategic Leadership and Management with almost 40 years' experience and over 17 years in leadership and strategic direction of FAEC. Mother tongue is Arabic, but fully fluent in spoken and written English.

Key Skills:

39 years' experience in strategic management of Rezayat Group progressively from Project Engineer to Vice-President in many disciplines of the multi-sector corporate group. Now executive leadership, strategic direction, overall guidance and corporate governance of the consultancy firm.

Experience:

2005-present: Fahd Alireza Engineering Consultants, Saudi Arabia – Owner and Chairman:

In 2004-5 Fahd Alireza expanded the in-house consultancy arm of the Rezayat Group to be a full-service consultancy design company providing services in the Architectural, Engineering, Management and Construction Supervision sectors in local and regional markets. Fahd Alireza provides the vision and strategic leadership, top level management and corporate governance for the FAEC consultancy firm, the company continues to expand and deliver ever wider consultancy service offerings. Under the specific direction of the Chairman, the company has taken a special interest in employing, training and developing young Saudi talent in consultancy design in order that they may best serve the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. The company also employs the latest technological tools and software in the fields of architecture, interior design, virtual engineering including REVIT, BIM, 3D and Navisworks, project planning and construction management.

1996-2004: Rezayat Group, Saudi Arabia – General Manager:

General Manager of the Construction Division of Rezayat Group. The Rezayat Group is a diversified group of companies involved in construction, contracting, engineering, trading, finance, insurance, risk management, industrial services, information technology, telecommunications, life support services, logistics and transportation. The group employs many thousands of employees involved in a wide range of sectors requiring multiple skills and engineering backgrounds with staff drawn from all parts of the world. The main clients of the Rezayat Group Construction Division include government corporations such as SABIC Group of companies, Saudi Aramco and many private sector companies. In addition, from 2001 through to 2004, Fahd Alireza was responsible for the establishment and nurturing of the in-house Engineering Consultancy Office providing engineering services to the Rezayat Group.

1986-1995: Rezayat Group, Saudi Arabia – Project Manager:

Project Manager responsible for the overall management and delivery of a variety of construction projects within the Construction Division of the Rezayat Group.

1980-1985: Rezayat Group, Saudi Arabia – Project Engineer:

Project Engineer involved in the day-to-day delivery of various and many construction projects being undertaken by the Construction Division of the Rezayat Group.