

HILAL SALAH HILAL QUALITY ASSURANCE ENGINEER

Personal, Educational and Language Details:

Lebanese Quality Management Engineer, graduated Master Degree in Industrial and Civil Engineering, Belarusian National Technical University, Belarus in 2005, with 13 years continuous professional experience as site engineer, project coordinator, project manager and quality assurance engineer in the Middle East. Mother tongue is Arabic and fully fluent in written and spoken English with good knowledge of French and Russian.

Key Skills:

PMP certified and with over 13 years as a professional engineer in the consultancy and construction industry with experience as site engineer, project coordinator and project manager. Expertise and natural aptitude in quality management, project management, internal and external quality audits and team management. In addition, has considerable experience in implementing and complying with clients/ stakeholders' quality standards and regulations, together with knowledge in conducting quality workshops and quality training together with excellent verbal and written skills.

Experience:

2019-present: Fahd Alireza Engineering Consultants, Saudi Arabia – Quality Assurance Engineer:

Responsible for assisting the QHSE Manager with the monitoring of the Quality Management System (QMS) and Environmental Management System (EMS) in the Yanbu Office; apply standard quality management procedures to project specific design work; work closely with project managers and technical quality control engineers; review and comment all interim design stage submittals from an overall quality perspective; review all outgoing documentation and submittals; and check all incoming documentation; also assisting the project managers in the development and implementation of project specific quality management plans.

2015-2017: Archen Engineering Consultants, Saudi Arabia – Project Manager (Consultancy and Supervision):

Responsible for managing and controlling construction as per the approved quality and management procedures, inspection plans and engineering standards including reporting in accordance with the project management requirements. Project involved the design and construction of Helipad Project for clients Ministry of Interior, Agency of Security Planning and Development, Saudi Arabia.

2012-2015: Archen Engineering Consultants, Saudi Arabia – Project Coordinator (Consultancy and Supervision):

Specific responsibilities included supervising and overseeing the submittals, scheduling and direction of the project to ensure that the client specifications and requirements were complied with in full. Projects completed included the South Borders Infrastructure (roads and bridges) of value SAR 11.5Bn for the Ministry of Interior, Saudi Arabia.

2010-2012: Barakat Contracting, Lebanon – Site Engineer:

Responsible for overseeing and direct construction of projects from conception through to completion including all aspects of quality management, quality assurance and quality control. Projects completed include the Disaster Data Recovery Facility for the Main Branch of Bloom Bank, Lebanon.

2006-2010: Depyan Construction LLC, Dubai – Site Engineer:

Specific responsibilities included oversee and direct construction of various high-quality finishes work to meet exacting project specifications and contractual time frames and conditions. Responsible for the quality management, quality assurance and quality control of all the finishing works executed to very high standards in accordance with the specifications and owner requirements.